

SPECIAL purchase, and to-day will see the last of them. We can show you the same kind of rugs in regular stock at $15.00 to $18.00. None less than $15.00.

foot Tapestry Brussels Rug for $10.98. ished their trips the quartered rugs. The opportunity comes about this are put together and so perfectly When the factory salesmen go out the large rugs are cut into four pieces, glving each salesman a sample containing the entire design.

Third floor.

At 9 o'clock this morning the new De public use for the first time. The room usual merit, will be replete with books on all tech- Miss Edith Pickering will sing the waltz be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night.

Commissioners Approve Precaution

Against Collision with Trucks.

Citizens' Association, and on the recommendation of William T. Belt, chief engi- The Navy Department has been advised pared an amendment to the police regula-tions regarding the stopping of street According to the information which the

CHAPTER I. "Your Daughter, Vida!"

would call "an evil-yillain temper."

arch-of-all-I-survey" passion.

VAUGHN CLASS CONCERT.

Programme of Unusual Attractiveness Promises Good Time.

The concert to be given at Calvary partment of Useful Arts and Sciences of Baptist Church, this evening by the the Public Library will be opened to Vaughn Class promises to be one of un-nological subjects, business methods, song, "Stella," by Faure. Another featrades, physics, chemistry, mechanics, ture will be the appearance of Miss Mary geology, and kindred subjects of learn- E. Mullin, She will sing Northeaur's new song, "As the Billows." Miss Nell M. The room will be such in nature that Neal, planist, will play Liszt's Hongroise free access to the books displayed may Rhapsodie No. 12. These and the other be had by users. Current magazines for numbers, including Prof. Robert Hickthose interested in art and science also man, reader; Mr. Fritz A. Mueller, vio-will be found on the tables. The room will loncello; Miss Eugenie de Guerrin, violin solo, and Mr. George O'Connor, in the latest popular songs, insures a pro-borhood had its parties and its own cele-

WORKMEN ASK MORE PAY.

At the request of the Columbia Heights Mare Island Riveters Demand Piece Work Schedule.

neer, fire department of the District, Cor- that about twenty-five riveters employed poration Counsel E. H. Thomas has pre- at the Mare Island Navy Yard have work, and have fixed their price at $25 clubhouse last night. After a few im-

GOBLINS ARE GOOD

Halloween Ghosts Behave Like Gentlemen.

POLICE HAVE LITTLE TROUBLE

Spooks Mend Their Ways and Keep Well Within the Law as Laid Down by Maj. Sylvester - Indoor Celebrations Generally Take Place of Former Outdoor Pranks.

Halloween is over. The spooks, elves, and goblins, and other fantastic creatures, who were bidden to the earth last night to terrorize folks on the good old footstool, have had their inning, and been consigned again to their visionary homes, like the Washington baseball club, to wait another year.

All Washington, or, at least, all junior Washington, turned out in fantastic garb to do homage, and right royally was the season celebrated in Washington. Many were the lassles who learned their already carefully planned future fate, and many were the antics of the small boy, who unrestrained out of doors scoffed at such tricks.

But Halloween is not what it used to be. "Tame," says the old timer, and "awfully tame," echoes his companion Not like the days we used to have. Oh,

Very Little Rowdyism,

Maj. Sylvester's edict had the desired effect. There was but little bolsterous ness last night. Those old tricks of tving serve was on duty, but arrests were fer A dozen or more boys were arrested for being disorderly, and a score more taken to their homes for a reprimand, but these were a minority.

Masqueraders and hobgoblins held full sway, however, on the city streets, and brations. There was scarcely a young person in town who was not at some sor the witchery of the night.

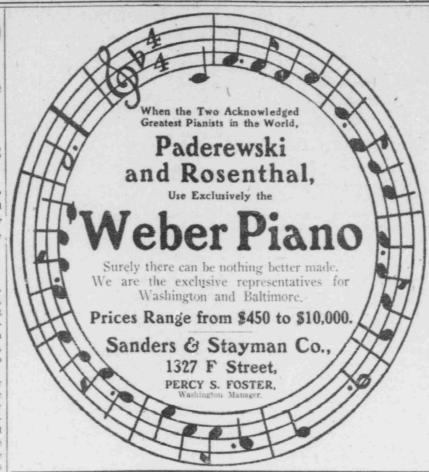

Glen Echo Clubhouse Scene of Happy Halloween Gathering.

NOMADS CELEBRATE.

In keeping with the spirit of the evenyoung social clubs, held a quiet little R streets and Fourteenth and K streets northwest.

The present rate of wages is $3.92 a day for riveters, $3.20 for helpers, and Fourteenth and E. Ball, Mrs. J. P. Ward, Misses Retailing Could be Related to the control of the present rate of wages is $3.92 a day for riveters, $3.20 for helpers, and Related to the control of the present rate of wages is $3.92 a day for riveters, $3.20 for helpers, and Related to the control of the present rate of wages is $3.92 a day for riveters, $3.20 for helpers, and Related to the control of the present rate of wages is $3.92 a day for riveters, $3.20 for helpers, and $3.90 fo The reasons assigned by the citizens' association is that the fire truck housed on Park road swings around the Fourteenth street corner on its way to a fire, thereby inviting collisions such as those thereby inviting collisions such as those which have happened in the last few They have recently been engaged upon C. F. Lanman, Totten, Mattingly, Schneidays between street cars and fire trucks, repair work on the transport Sheridan. | der, Milard, Annin, Henderson, Cruit.

SHALLARAMAN SHALLA

AN EXCLUSIVE LADIES' CLOAK, SUIT, AND FURNISHING HOUSE

The First Bargain Day of the Season.

To-day we inaugurate our regular Friday Bargain Sales for this season with offerings of exceptional attractiveness in high-class Coats and Suits. Small lots, but all excellent qualities—and at prices that should crowd the store.

Ladies' and Misses' Long Cloth Coats Reduced

$13.50 Coa $15.50 Coa	ts.			 ×		į			Ĺ,			 		 								$7	75
$15.50 Coa	its.				. ,				1					 								$9	50
$16.50 Coa	its.						* 1	 				 		 			. ,				. $	311	.00
$25.00 Coa	its.		٥,				*)	 					ĸ,								. 5	15	.00
$25.00 Coa $28.50 Coa	its.										į,				v	į					.5	18	.00

Small Lots Suits	Voile Suits
Reduced.	One $45 Voile Suit One $72 Voile Suit
$33.50 Novelty Sult	One $95 Volle Sult and the same of the Clark of the P.A.

ne $95 Volle Suit .. and Voile Suits. $7.75 Skirts. $32.50 and $35.00 Silk $8.50 Skirts $13,50 Skirts.

WM. H. McKNEW CO., 933 PENNA. AVE.

His fool of a brother was good for nothing but prescribing for old wives. only-ah! if only he could have done everything for himself-but to be compelled to trust to idiots-to a quack!

CHAPTER II.

"Where is Kahn? Send Kahn to viously holding himself ready to dodge, and faltering his belief that "Mr. Kahn before settling down again at home."

The voice of a woman, tired and faded, spoke languidly. She was lying on a pile of mattresses and cushions on the deck he ordered this nice, smooth weather, whistled plaintively through the cordage ner daughter had made a general pillage and comfortable-

"Humph!" said Vida Romer, brusquely, "I don't see why you ever married that nan, mother-I wouldn't. He is too mean work at Gorm House, and, as Gregson sides, it is wrong of you to speak in that way of your father-" the pay and the place had their advanthen," Vida declared, emphatically. "He is rich and he leaves us poor. He never deprecation. is rich and he leaves us poor. He never does a single thing for us. I wouldn't have him for a father if I could help it.

"Oh, Vida, you must not—remember the first with have him for a father if I could help it."

"Oh, Vida, you must not—remember the first with have him for a father if I could help it."

"Oh, Vida, you must not—remember the first with have him for a father if I could help it."

"Oh, Vida, you must not—remember the first with have him for a father if I could help it."

"Oh, Vida, you must not—remember the first with have him for a father if I could help it."

lifting up a narrow, transparent hand lifting up a narrow, transparent hand which she laid tremulously over the strong, nervous one of her daughter. "You strong, nervous one of her daughter. "You honor him?" lift me a bit. Why, then, should 1 honor him?" lift me a bit. Why, then, should 1 for it. At first, the two women heard the background of smoky chimneys and diz-The mayor has a nephew about ripe for he was thinking at the same time what strong, nervous one of her daughter. "You honor him?"

The mayor has a nephew about ripe for he was thinking at the same time what strong, nervous one of her daughter. "You honor him?"

The mayor has a nephew about ripe for my shoes, and the town clerk has had his ill-trick he could safely play them. His don't know who may hear you. And they The mother person to whom every one, not actively her mother's back, and made a grimace hostile, is either "nice" or "kind." To that said clearly that Jacob Romer, when hostile, is either "nice" or "kind." To that said clearly that Jacob Romer, with his daughter. hopeful, instead of returning to school, caston when Tweedle and I saw her. We ant smile, a thick neck, and such broad hostile, is either ince or kind. The goes straight to the asylum and finds her got clear of the poor side, on the plea shoulders on such a short body that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he came to reckon with his daughter, the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they the woman of weak mind and troubled he would find out to the saw that they they would find out to the saw that they they would find out to the saw that they would find out to the saw that they they would find out to the saw that they would find out to the saw that they they would find they they would find they they would find they wo nerves, James Kahn was both.

When he entered the morning room at and daughter were again left alone.

placability of youth.

Voile Suits Reduced.

Sicilian Skirts Reduced.

.$30

.$70

.. $50. $

see, Jacob said I must. My father and It was in June that they sailed away opening the porthole, let the light of a "Put Warner on the Golden Swan," said mother said I must. So I did. And I to the north-in these latitudes a month blue morning and the reflection of largely Mr. Romer; "shift Capt. Helstone to the Good Intent, and let him choose his own We were poor then, and—except for his St. John's-eve storms upon the deadly carven marble. She put her hand upon crew. You are to be supercargo, and to finding fault with the housekeeping and Cape Wrath seas and among the black, her mother's brow. It was cold as stone! my wrong additions in the money books, thick-sown reefs of the Hebrides. Yet Vida screamed out, and running to the Yery well, sir," said James Kahn. He I was happy enough. But then he was amidst these lay their course, and neither companion ladder, beat with her hands knew very much better than to ask a clever-far too clever for me. He was Vida nor her mother noticed that a couple apon the hatchway. knew very much better than to ask a question or even to smile. He was on his promotion, though he pursued knowledge and the wife of a well-x-own Scotch ironmaster, should be dragged from her home and put in an asylum-on the poor side?"

[Agree of the pursued knowledge and put in an asylum-on the poor side?"

[Agree of the was on his promotion, though he pursued knowledge and put in an asylum-on the poor side?"

[Agree of the was on his promotion, though he pursued knowledge all was inverting things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, so that it ended in his uncle, old Mr. Gorm, not being always inventing things, a the Frith of Cantyre. The misty blue mountains of Sannox, anchored full in the fairway, made of the peninsula on which it strond almost an embattled island. Yet the master of dark with the first od almost an embattled island. Yet the master of dark with the first od almost an embattled island. Yet the master of Gorm House stood at the window of his breakfast received and the took the affair up—for the sake of any spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is a man of property and influence in the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is and the took the affair up—for the sake ends—for a while. Afterward he was too busy, or something—and he could not be the crew spare and the crew spare kudos, I suppose. His father is and the crew spare swim, and I shall certainly have a cork should have wearied. Yes, I know what In spite of all, she would not stay beswim, and I shall certainly have a cork jacket by my bunk when I turn in."

But he resolved that if there were any risk in the matter he would make Mr. Jacob Romer pay dearly for the dangers he might have to encounter.

And within the morning room of Gorm House the master of the great Incubus pits continued his beat as upon a quarter-deck, with knitted brow and his brother's letter crushed more tightly in his hand.

Should have wearied. Yes, I know what they said—horrid they said—what Uncle Tom said—horrid they said—horrid they us this splendid cruise in his own ship, are a good daughter to me, Vida, all around by the north of Scotland——!" Everything about them was "ni something horrid away. The mother raised her hands in pained need to be closed.

AND EVENING. Admission to Grounds Free

MATINEE DAILY ALL THIS WEEK.

WILLIAMS' IDEALS

Big Beauty Burlesque Co.

FALL FESTIVAL

Business Men's Carnival

FERARI'S SHOWS UNITED

10 Amusements 10 BIG

ATTRACTIONS AFTERNOON

Murphy & Mages Big Scenic Production vs. Labor, with All the Trades Represent 20—DASHING DARLINGS—29 NEXT WEEK-HIGH JINKS.

AMUSEMENTS.

COLUMBIA Washington's TO-NIGHT AT 8:15.

SATURDAY MATINEE ONLY. CHAS. DILLINGHAM PRESENTS

"THE TATTOOED MAN"

presented at the Criterion Theater, New York, for Three Mouths.

NEXT WEEK-Seats Now on Sale.

THE LONDON APOLLO THEATER SUCCESS.

Tom Jones

A NEW ENGLISH COMIC OPERA.

Music by Edward German. Lyrics by Chas. H. Taylor.

Selected Cast, Including

LOUISE GUNNING, WILLIAM NORRIS, VAN R. WHEELER.

BELASCO WASHINGTON'S PLAYHOUSE BEAUTIFU

TO-NIGHT-MATINEE TO-MORROW

HENRY MILLER PRESENTS

Henry Woodruff

NEXT WEEK : SEATS SELLING

The Road To Yesterday

MINNIE DUPREE

Herald Sq. and Lyric Theaters, N. Y.

happy! I never felt so happy in my life-"And how kind of dear Jacob to give not even when I was first married. You of the Good Intent, to procure which last too, especially, so that we would be nice The sails were reefed or got in. Quiet amid the bustle, Vida and her mother sat "It would have been just like him if watching the west changing from dingy he had," said Mrs. Romer, smiling orange through powdery blue to a dusky faintly, but with a certain glint of pleasure in her dim eyes, "I mean like what jets of cloud-spray, went and came. Then he used to be long ago! He was quick- for the first time, Capt. Helstone adhe used to be long ago! He was quick-tempered and masterful-Jacob. Oh, al-dressed his passengers. He touched his young, rowing it. Her hands were band-"Childie," said Mrs. Romer, sighing ways! And, do you know, Vida, some-peaked cap with a stiff gesture, and to talk. She could hear the clatter of gently, "you cannot understand, and besides, it is wrong of you to speak in that "God forbid!" said the girl quickly, it was going to be a "coarse night."

thrusting out her hands as if pushing thrusting out her hands as if pushing to run for the open. The hatches would her, and no Good Intent upon it any-

The mother found no other reply than dim of trampling above them, the clatter- zying wheels, a famous ironmaster would find quite other material on his supercargo's room, and with infinite stagon board The Good Intent there berth, always returning thankful that she was sleeping so soundly through the tur

"Get out!" roar of Mr. Romer, suddenly "Get out!" roar only leitering for appeared to be but little cargo. It was, in fact, a pleasure cruise for the bene-

"Oh, my dear, there he is now! Do be The master had saluted them with curt the sounds on the deck had died away, gravel! civility when they had come on board with James Kahn. The two or three uously, "I don't care if he were standing with James went about their duties as usual, and that only the dull shock of heavy seas and the splash and tumble of breakers plunging over the bulwarks could be the Wolf Skerry lighthouse, where some-

AMUSEMENTS.

And Cast of 100, in the New Music Play,

"The Christian Pilgrim" Being John Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," NEXT WEEK, SEATS NOW.

CHARLES FROHMAN PRESENTS

NATIONAL THEATER.

At 4:30. "PACIFIC COAST.

Dr. KARL MUCK, Conductor,

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, Nov. 5, 4:30. Seats now on sale at T. ARTHUR SMITH'S, 1411 F st. Prices, $2.50, $2.60, $1.50, $1.00, and 75 cents.

GAVETY THEATER, 9th St., near F. Commencing Monday Matinee and Ail Week.
MATINEE EVERY DAY.

SCRIBNER'S Big Show

BOWEN and LINA. NEXT WEEK-NEW YORK STARS CO. NEW ACADEMY Mats. Tuosday, Thursday, and Saturday.

ALL THIS WEEK BROS. BYRNE in 8-BELLS-8 THE GREATEST LAUGHING SHOW ON EARTH Nest Wesk-JAS. J. CORBETT, in THE BUR-SLAR AND THE LADY.

17th Annual Concert.

CALVARY BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL HOUSE, 8th and H sts. nw., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 8 P. M. Best Local Talent.

IDEAL ROLLER RINK. CONVENTION HALL MILITARY BAND. Races Thursday, Patrons can use their own skates, Great Falls of the Potomac. More Picturesque Than Niagara. HUGE GORGE-TOWERING CLIFFS, Three Great Waterfalls, Swirling Whirlpool, Take cars G. F. & O. D. R. R., 35th and M. Fare, 25c round trip.

eyes, that so consistently fled the regard, Romer" the girl went on, with the im- some comfortable old red-plush furni- in a deadly place, with some vague and ture and put them into the little cabin, imminent peril menacing her. She had

It was empty from end to end! No

suddenly revealed as black and smooth

That was death! That was a reef! These were the Woives of Kior, though Vida did not know them even by name. As Vida stood on the deck thinking what she must do, The Good Intent staggered downward step on his path, recovered herself with a yet heavier rolling lurch other, as in a dream (Vida could not explain how), she found herself on board a beautiful white-painted boat the little waves at the bow. She could see the surface of the water all round where. She saw only a tall, white pillar, Immediately Mrs. Romer and her which, without being told, she knew for

Then again for awhile Vida knew no She must have had excellent stuff in more; and in a tall, modern, castellated moil of the waters.

But Vida was too dazed to notice that waking up. "You are only loitering for money you have not earned. Get off my

Also The Good Intent swung thing was happpening at that moment wide a berth as possible. So the super- heavily to the lurch of the waves, with- which was not mentioned in the telegram he had duly and officially delivered to the

They are the genuine Alex. Smith & Sons Tapestry Brussels Rugs, in light and dark effects; all-over, floral, Oriental, and conventional patterns. Think it over again. A 9 by 12 | When these salesmen have fin-

NEW LIBRARY DEPARTMENT. Books on Technical Subjects Open to Public To-day.

those interested in art and science also

ORDER STREET CARS TO STOP.

cars, which the Commissioners have ap- department has, the men demand piece Halloween gathering at their Glen Echo The amendment provides for the con- per hundred for 1-inch rivets and $12 per promptu dances the party adjourned to stituting of Fourtenth street and Park hundred for 3/8-inch plate rivets. It is unroad as a car stop, in addition to those already designated by the regulations on the subject, namely, Fourteenth and the subject, namely, Fourteenth and the present rate of wagge is $3.92 a. The present rate of wagge is $3.92 a. The present were: Patronesses—Mrs.

the terse vigor of the master of many ant peeped carefully round the corner of

"Go away!" shouted his master, bending suddenly, as if seeking something to knew his master, was already assisting the page boy upon his cycle, with orders to ride for his life, and beg Mr. Kahn to hurry-that the master wanted him-immediately-and, indeed, very much sconer.

Scenes like this were all in the day's ruly said, it was not every self-respecttages; therefore, Gregson remained-and Mr. Kahn-James Kahn-was known did his grumbling out of business hours.

ing man-servant who would stand it. But

The Iron Lord

AUTHOR OF "THE STICKIT MINISTER," "THE RAIDERS," "THE WHITE PLUME," &c.

Gorm House looked on the sea, that is, on keel-torn, screw-tormented water of Mr. Bridge, sharply. And the reporters and he took the affair up—for the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master of the look of the sea, that is, on keel-torn, screw-tormented water of the look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion, with Capt. Helstone as master look of the sake excursion.

room and looked on this beauty, but saw | "Then Miss Vida Romer states her full Jacob, your affectionate brother, nothing but a blur. He had crushed a let- name, also yours, and-what mattered ter in the paim of one huge hand, and most of all in Thorsby-mine. The court Mr. Jacob Romer, of Gorm House, was risen from his untoched breakfast to officials, across whose hawse I have had a red-faced man, of middle stature, some-ordered the yet newer footman out of his for a certainty. Jacob Romer was in what Mr. Bunyan thing irregular-two officials of the mu- snapped and scintillated, and he put all nicipality and both justices of the peace.' His forceful hands twitched visibly as (He had a sneer in his voice, I am sure.) thousand workmen into the pendulum tohis neck. Indeed, in a very few minutes " "She has been very ill, sir, said your he had worked himself into a fine "mon- daughter; she is weak and shy with And this was the letter which had so happy with me when they left us alone. Mr. Romer at the moment, and he called provoked him. It was from his brother We were so happy in our little house at out: Tom-a celebrated doctor and a man like- Wood Green, and she never went out me minded with himself-also one who had even when I was away at school. That never asked him for a sixpence (know- is, when she promised not. But, at any ing that he would not have got it), in all rate, my mother has money of her own, points equally cross-grained, pushing, and and ought not to be on the poor side points equally cross-grained, pushing, and upscrupulous as Mr. Jacob Romer him- of a public asylum. That is a piece of ed Mr. Jacob Romer. "And, see here, if petty spite. She has two hundred a you don't have him up within five min-"Dear Jacob (thus ran the letter), I year of her own, and I know her so- utes-I'll-have done my best for you-and a good licitor's address. There it is, She ought deal more than I would have done for certainly to be represented." anybody else-more than you would ever | "And if she didn't write the address have done for me, or indeed than I should down on a sheet of paper and hand it up have asked you to do. But if it had been to the magistrate as cool as an old of the least use I should not have minded. hand. He glanced at it, so they tell me.

gave no trouble. I had her journey all a quill, safely arranged for, and nothing would "'You may go home, Miss Romer,' he chief, your daughter, Vida. She it was this,' who brought the whole wasp-nest buzzing around my ears. No sconer had we safe-ly planted her mother in the Thorsby watch committee all after me that same pits as "The Confidential." He was a have him for a father if I could help it. nty Asylum (and, really, the best and day. It was your business or mine, safest place for her!) than this bantling | positions of police doctor and city analyst board. Had to, I can tell you!—for they anywhere, that is, between twenty-five by raising the whole town of Thorsby The tot his point old Tweedle and I had worked the thing quite quietly. Attendants, accustomed to such cases, were on the spot, and took Caroline off from Wood Green one moonlight night without a soul being the wiser,

The mother found no other reply than the simple restatement of the commandance and then swerved as the simple restatement of the commandance and then swerved as the simple restatement of the commandance and the simple and of the simple and of the simple and of the simple and of the simple and the simpl "But the very next day your young state of the patient—at least, on the ochopeful, instead of returning to school, casion when Tweedle and I saw her. We ant smile, a thick neck, and such broad mother on the poor side—where I had placed her according to your instructions, as being less conspicuous. Then—crack! Off she flies like a fire-rocket to interview the mayor at the town hall. Inside of the major at the town has been provided by that it was 'a simple mistake.' So I just managed to scrape out of it, but this is the last time I shall meddle with your domestic hornets' nests. If you want to when he entered the morning room at the control of the provided has been such as a short body that they gave him the look of being slightly deformed. He hid extreme bodily force under the flaccid languor of a used-up managed to scrape out of it, but this is the last time I shall meddle with your domestic hornets' nests. If you want to en minutes she has him persuaded that be rid of your wife, get a lawyer, Jacob- the house, Mr. Romer motioned him to am a cruel monster and an unconscion- a fellow who is paid for doing your dirty shut the door. Then, without the slightable tyrant. Next she appears before the sitting magistrate—yes, before our stipen-the middle of the police cases, my young y steps up and asks for advice.

"Certainly,' says the magistrate, 'how brother Tom, with such a niece as Miss with equally little surprise. in I assist you?'

"Is it right (says Mademoiselle) 'that of her, my friend. One of my competi- "and belonging to the firm." my mother, a lady of independent means, tors here, a young fellow, Hubert Salve- The little thick-set man with the gray "How did you come to marry Jacob an artist in his way. He had found It seemed to Vida that she was boxed up

Mr. Eugene Bridge, and right in

(Copyright, 1907, by S. R. Crockett, All rights reserved.)

stride about the room and frown upon to come several times in the way of bus- what replete with protuberant eyes and he might have to encounter. the external world through expensive iness, sat up like so many cockroaches. a whitish bristle of hair in which could sheets of brand-new plate glass. He had They thought they had pinched me now be discovered no particular parting or arrangement. As he went on reading you watched them. He wanted somebody 'Are you certain that your mother is per- and-fro of his walk. A scared man-servto contradict him, so that he might twist | feetly sane, Miss-ah-Romer?" strangers, but she was always good and have been said but for that imp of mis- said. 'Be assured that I will look into "And sure enough, I had the mayor, the Jacob-and I had to let yours go by the definite nationality-everything, in factwere as keen as mustard after my scalp. and forty. He had a brisk, hateful look, as if the people about amused him, and jobs, and carry it off under cover of pro- est salutation or introduction, he demand-fessional duty and looking to his client's interests.

"As you supposed-personally Caroline and scratched his head with the butt of

"But it is altogether too warm for your quickest?" "But it is altogether too warm for your appeared to ponder a moment.

"And her master?"

"Capt, Warner."

"THOMAS ROMER." jacket by my bunk when I turn in."

Pshaw! And pshaw! And pshaw!

The Cruise of "The Good Intent." "How nice of your father, dear, sending this nice ship and all these nice men just to give us a trip and cheer us up, of the ship.

"Let him show that he is my father.

"Oh, yes, I know, mother, that is all Intent battled with the winds and the heaven was "such a very nice place."

"Hush, Vida, hush!" said her mother, very well," said Vida, "but it says, too—ifting up a narrow, transparent hand like as a father pitieth his children—
Then again for awhile Vida knew more; and in a tall, modern, castellated with the winds and the waves of a North Atlantic storm.

She must have had excellent stuff in more; and in a tall, modern, castellated with the winds and the waves of a North Atlantic storm. little, fairish man of indefinite age, in- And I can!"

> "Ugh, I detest him!" said her daughter, without the least attempt at moderating her voice, "a horrid, little, sneak-ere now. He can't eat me!" However, the supercargo moved off to fit of the owner's wife and daughter. but seemed to give the passengers as heard. the further end of the ship, and mother Kahn was not above serving their meals, Suddenly the girl woke from a description of the ship and mother of the ship and ship and mother of the Kahn was not above serving their meals. Suddenly the girl woke from a dream owner of Gorm House. and as interim ship's cook was evidently in a kind of wild and awestruck terror.

otherwise," quavered her mother. "You kinder, said the wife of his employer. She ran to her mother's little cabin, and lieve your father will allow us to cut hung lax and motionless. But, all the suddenly as it came, or perhaps the ship had drifted behind some island, for the "I am happy, Vida darling," she would "I do!" cried Vida, bristling up, lioness- say, as she sat with her daughter's hand then all about the ship the smooth, undulating surface of the sea would dim-

Everything about them was "nice," and "Rubbish!" said Vida, shortly. "Now, after this there could be no higher praise. sit up, mother, and I will a range your pillows for you. You are slipping down much too low. There—that's better!

But, swift as a lion from behind a bush, a western tempest, gyrating landward on the warm swirls of the Gulf Stream, Father wanted us out of the way a while sprang upon them one night about tenlonger, that's all. I suppose you think of-the-clock. For an hour the winds had sight, and kicked the morning's Thistle into the corner without even glancing at into the corner without even glancing the "iron-and-steel report," which as a rule was as holy writ to him. Altogether, Tweedle! Surely there cannot be anywater was fairly calm. But every now like; "I'll speak to them, if they so much clasped in hers under the awning which as dare to look as if they would smile Vida had stretched for her. "Oh, so heave itself up all about, like a man lifting roar of green water on something to starboard, and then, somehow